

Ready for the upswing? Thinking about innovation?

Curious....?

*Please join us for a session, or the day,
or just for lunch!*

*Our research & experience
PLUS your context & insights
= RESULT: creative ideas & mutual learning*

Hosted and facilitated by:

Session 1: Playful Innovation

New research shows that play might be as important as sleep, to keep our brains in shape – new ideas need some form of play to blossom. We share insights from global projects and explore ways of creating space for play, and making work fun, in your context.

Session 2: Learning to Innovate

Sharing 8 years' research of principles and tools for groups working on Innovation in Practice. Working with your situation and designing ways for you to embed innovation in your business.
